PAIRONESS OF THE AMERICAS... The feast of "Our Lady of Guadalupe," the most important Catholic religious holiday observed by the Spanish-speaking population of the Americas, will be celebrated locally this Saturday and Sunday. Highlight of the festivities will be a procession Sunday, featuring a float depicting the original miracle. Assuming the role of the Virgin Mary will be Lupe Valdivia, 18. Ignacio Ybarra will appear as Juan Diego, the Indian convert to whom the Lady of Guadalupe appeared.—Press Photo.

Feast, Procession To Honor 'Our Lady Of Guadalupe'

A two-day festival honoring "Our Lady of Guadalupe" and climaxed by an impressive religious procession will be held Saturday and Sunday, December 10-11, at St. Joseph's parish in Pueblo center, 2314 203rd st. Starting Saturday, December 10 at 12 noon, colorful booths will be opened for selling Spanish home-made food until 6 p.m., funds to be used for improvements for the parish. High Mass will be held in the open grounds of the parish Sunday, December 11, at 9:30 a.m. with booths again opening right after the service. Procession The religious procession, highlight of which is the float depicting the miracle of "Our Lady of Guadalupe," will start at 1 p.m. from Border ave. and Arlington and will proceed north on Arlington until it reaches the parish grounds, at which time rosary will be recited and the benediction given. The feast commemorates a great miracle which is said to have occurred December 9, 1531, a few miles northeast of Mexico City. Miracle On that day, the Virgin Mary appeared to a poor Indian convert, Juan Diego. As a sign for the incredulous bishop in Mexico City, the Virgin directed Juan to some roses which she sent back with him to the bishop. As Juan unfolded the cloak containing the roses before the bishop, the bishop fell to his knees, because the cloak bore the picture of the Virgin Mary exactly as Juan Diego had described her. Ever since then, the Lady of Guadalupe has served as patroness of the Americas. Impersonating Our Lady of Guadalupe will be Miss Lupita Valdivia, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Valdivia, 20619 Amie st., Torrance, and impersonating Juan Diego will be Ignacio Ybarra, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Ybarra of 2269 203rd st. Those who helped plan this event include Rafael Solis, president of Pueblo center; Juan Magana, vice-president; Gilbert and Rose Atencio; Albert and Rita Acebedo; Virginia Eredia; and Juanita Yriorte. Orders for food to be taken out may be placed by calling DA. 6-0302 or FA. 8-2881. All aspects of the festivities are open to the public.
